

The American Studies Center, University of Warsaw is proud to announce an open talk by

Prof. Derek Hackett

of Fordham University

'Fools Rush in Where Angels Fear to Tread': An Interpretation of the Movie The Third Man as a Political Allegory

The thesis of the lecture is that the film The Third Man is about US entry into Europe and the wider world post-WWII and an attempt by the British to educate the Americans into the realities of acting on the European and world stage.

17.05.2010 (Monday)

2:15 p.m

Room 319

A.S.C.- Al. Niepodległości 22, Warsaw

Derek Hackett, The Feerick Center, Fordham University School of Law, New York, New York. I have graduate degrees in law, American history, and American politics.